

After reading the explanation of NAB's efforts to restrict the listening choices of satellite Radio's customers on the XM site I urge you to reject petition 04-160. This is a technology with great potential and I would not like to see an attempt to reduce the choices of the individual consumer.